Bacons Rebellion.

Col. James Powell's will dated 1692.

He was a warmfriend of Sir Wm. Berkley, & was wounded in the leg when Bacon besieged the Gov. at James in 1676. He is described as an honest, loyall person, - a great sufferer in his Estate & Effects, &c. &c

Henry West with John Porter patented 600 acres on the branches of the Blackwater, Dec. 1673. He took part in Bacon's Rebellion & by court martial held Jan. 24, 1676-7 was found guilty of Treason & rebellion & was banished from Va. for seven years & all of his estate except £5. forfeited. It is certain that his sentence was not carried out.
